

Dear Students:

I am sorry to inform you that although I am recovering, I still have difficulties in writing and speaking, and doctor recommends me take illness-leave at least till middle of June. Therefor Computational Physics course will continue to be taught by my colleagues, and Prof. Ma and Mr. Zhu will help me with laboratory assignments, projects, exams, etc. Thank you for your understanding.

Wish you happy holidays!

H.Q.

1. Please note Lab 5 will be the last laboratory assignment. As I promised, we reduced workload for laboratory assignments after the first one.
2. The Midterm Exam is scheduled as May 13, 18:00-19:40, and the Final Exam is scheduled as June 10. Midterm Exam covers teaching materials up to April 29, excluding Molecular Dynamics.
3. In the following lectures, we will cover Classical Monte Carlo, One-body Quantum Mechanics, and Many-body Quantum Systems.
